

Professional experience:

The New York Times. COVID 19 team. U.S. March 2020 – June 2020.

As part of a collaboration with UC Berkeley, I tracked covid 19 data of a northern California county. Mark Danner was editor of the Open-Source Intelligence Team I was part of. As part of the collaboration, I published a piece about the xenophobia Asian Americans were suffering due to Covid 19.

The Copenhagen Post. Intern Writer. Denmark. September 2019 – March 2020.

The Copenhagen Post is Denmark's leading source for news in English since 1997, featuring Danish and Nordic news. I wrote articles about national and international politics.

The University of California. Communications Intern. August 2017- April 2018.

At the offices in Madrid, I focused on communication tasks, social networks, and video production. I redesigned the safety protocol in case of terrorism or natural disaster cutting our response time to minutes.

La Razón Newspaper. International Desk Intern. Spain. June - October 2017.

I wrote, translated, and edited stories. I interviewed analysts from all over the world. In those months I published more than 100 pieces in the printed paper, and I participated in the 2017 Barcelona terrorist attacks investigation by building sources in Belgium.

La Torre Magazine. Writer and editor. Spain. 2012 – 2020.

I covered politics and the magazine's main editorial column. Since 2020 I am a contributor.
